God calls us friends. He reveals himself because he loves us. God wants us to know him better so that we will love him more.

All the things God has created tell us something about him. God reveals himself in the words he speaks to us and in the deeds he does for us.

Pages 4–5

God the Father reveals himself perfectly through his Son, Jesus. The Incarnation is the Son of God becoming man in order to save us.

God became man so that everyone who believes in him will have eternal life with the risen Jesus.

When we were baptized, God gave us the gift of faith and a share in his own life. Faith is a precious gift that helps us believe in God and all he has revealed in words and deeds.

Page 6

Our faith becomes stronger when we pray and celebrate the sacraments, when we listen to God's Word and study the Church's teachings, and when we follow God's will and keep his commandments.

Because we are made in God's image, we are free to believe. Our faith is both a gift and a choice.
