We Receive Holy Communion

GRADE 5

CHAPTER 10 Study Guide

Keep these ideas in mind as you study Chapter 10*.*

When we receive Holy Communion, we come into a holy union with God. We are also united more closely with one another.

The Lord's Prayer is an important part of the Mass, but it is also a perfect mealtime prayer. When we pray for "our daily bread," we pray that all our daily needs are met. We also pray for forgiveness. However, we must form our conscience and make it stronger.

During the Liturgy of the Eucharist, we ask God for peace and then give one another a sign of peace.

As the priest breaks the bread and prepares it, we sing or pray the Lamb of God.

During the Eucharistic Prayer, the bread and wine become the Body and Blood of Jesus Christ.

When the priest says, "The Body of Christ," we respond, "Amen!" By our response, we say that we truly believe that Jesus Christ is present.

When you receive the consecrated bread, you receive Jesus Christ himself. It means that you are willing to give your life for others as he did.

After we receive Holy Communion, we may sit down and talk with Jesus. He will listen and speak to us.
