Jesus broke bread and shared wine at the Last Supper. Through his words and actions, he gave us the Mass.

The Holy Spirit unites us to Jesus' sacrifice when we participate in the Eucharist. It is perfect praise and thanksgiving to God the Father.

Bread and wine are the main gifts we present at Mass as signs of ourselves. At the Last Supper, Jesus prayed for the unity symbolized by the bread and wine. He prayed that we would all love one another.

The Eucharistic Prayer begins with the priest praying the Preface Dialogue in our name.

Page 74

The Preface Dialogue is a prayer of praise and thanksgiving. Our response is to sing the Holy, Holy, Holy.

Page 74

The Consecration is when the priest asks God to bless our gifts of bread and wine. God transforms our gifts into the Body and Blood of Christ.

Page 74

After the Consecration, we proclaim the Mystery of Faith.

Page 74

With the Amen, we proclaim our faith and praise. We agree with all that has been said in the Eucharistic Prayer.
