

Isaiah Proclaims the Promised Messiah

CHAPTER 22 Study Guide

Keep these ideas in mind as you study Chapter 22.

Isaiah was a prophet in Judah. Like Amos, he was concerned with the suffering of those who were poor. He was active for a long time and advised several kings.

Page 191

When God asked who he should send as his messenger, Isaiah said, “Here I am! Send me!” Isaiah saw God’s holiness in a vision in which an angel touched his lips with a burning coal.

Page 191

When the Assyrians threatened to attack Judah, the kings and the people trusted in their armies. Isaiah, however, told them that they should place their trust in God.

Page 192

Isaiah prophesied that it was God’s plan for Judah to be conquered. He explained that God would continue his promises through a remnant of Israel.

Page 192

The Book of Isaiah is a collection of the prophecies of three different authors named Isaiah. Chapters 1–39 are credited to Isaiah. Later chapters were written by Second Isaiah and Third Isaiah, who were Isaiah’s followers.

Page 192

Isaiah prophesied that the Israelite kingdom would be brought about by a suffering servant. This kingdom would begin in the heart, and the suffering servant would conquer through love.

Page 193

Jesus suffered for the people much like the suffering servant that Isaiah prophesied about.

Page 193

If we want true greatness, we must be faithful people. Faithful people understand their responsibility to love and care for others. They act on what they believe and serve as examples of faith.

Page 194